Enduring Material

Purpose:

We recognize the need for ongoing education on behavioral health topics for disciplines who provide care to children and adolescents. This educational session is specially designed to educate Nurses, Counselors, Social Workers, and other disciplines who work with children and adolescent youth, particularly in the school setting, on behavioral health topics. This activity will reach learners about how a growth mindset for parents can build resilience in children.

Objectives:

- 1 Learn what it means to have a growth mindset.
- 2 Learn how to help a child develop a growth mindset at home.
- 3 Learn practical ways parents can help their children build emotional resilience.
- 4 Understand when a parent needs to step in to help and when they should allow a child to work through something on their own.
- 5 Learn how to help a child set healthy and achievable goals
- 6 Understand what resources schools or counselors can offer to help parents support resilience at home.
- 7 What to do if a child is struggling socially, emotionally, or academically.

Target Audience:

Nurse - RN, Technician, Social Worker, Counselor / Therapist, Addiction and Prevention Professionals, Nurse -LPN/LVN
