ACI Complementary Services in Oncology: Supporting Patients Beyond Medical Treatment

08/08/2026 at 08:00 AM to 08/08/2029 at 08:00 AM

Enduring Material

Purpose:

Comprehensive cancer care extends beyond medical treatment and includes services that address the physical, emotional, psychosocial, and quality-of-life needs of patients and caregivers. This enduring material introduces healthcare professionals to the complementary oncology services available through ACI, including music therapy, art therapy, massage therapy, and wig and appearance support services. Participants will explore the evidence supporting these interventions, identify appropriate referral opportunities, and learn how interdisciplinary collaboration can enhance the overall patient experience and improve supportive oncology care.

Objectives:

1 Describe the various roles and responsibilities within complementary therapies in oncology care at the Sioux Falls ACI.
2 Describe the current evidence base supporting complementary therapies for symptom management, psychosocial support, and quality of life for oncology patients and care givers.
3 Identify appropriate patient populations and clinical scenarios for referral to complementary services and programs.

Target Audience:

Physician, Nurse - RN, Social Worker, Pharmacist, Pharmacy Technician, Registered Dietitian, Nurse - Nurse Practitioner, Physician Assistant, Radiologic Technologists, Nurse -LPN/LVN

For successful completion:

- Watch video
- Complete post-test
- Complete evaluation
