12/24/2024 at 08:00 AM to 12/24/2024 at 09:00 AM

Live Activity

Purpose:

Careflight's medical director and educator will select patient transports by Careflight's team that warrant review with the entire Careflight team including interesting diagnosis; high-risk, low-volume procedures, and cases in which there is learning opportunity.

Objectives:

- 1 Discuss & analyze patient transport with the Careflight team.
- 2 Develop strategies and a team approach to the care of the critically ill patient.
- 3 Discuss options for treatment and management, citing appropriate resources and/or guidelines for evidenced-based care.
- 4 Identify problems encountered in practice or those identified by the presence of poor or unexpectedly poor patient outcomes.
- 5 Identify practice improvements that can be made to improve healthcare quality and safety issues related to the care of the critically ill patient
- 6 Identify social determinants that affect patient care for the critically ill patient

Target Audience:

Physician, Nurse - RN

For successful completion:

- Attend education
- Complete evaluation
