2025 Avera Social Services Article Club - 7/15/2025

07/15/2025 at 12:30 PM to 07/15/2025 at 01:00 PM

Live Activity

Purpose:

This series will allow social workers at Avera McKennan to learn about and develop practice skills through the use of peer-reviewed articles. Each month, selected articles will be discussed as a group, allowing for open discussion regarding current practices and opportunities for improvement. A variety of topics will be covered and focus on cultural competency, human development, mental health, political implications for practice, and current treatment interventions for various medical conditions. The primary focus of this series is to improve patient care and overall employee well-being.

Objectives:

- 1 Identify potential barriers in providing effective care for those living with disabilities.
- 2 Describe best practice interventions that you will implement into your own practice.
- 3 Practice greater awareness regarding compassion fatigue and advocate for best practices in patient care.

Target Audience:

Social Worker
