Speaker: Brittni Cowan, RN and Kristy Colford, RN

Publish Date: 3/1/2020 -3/31/2021

An e-learning course available on the Avera Learning Center and/or the Avera CE Portal *****

Purpose: The Avera Virtual Continuing Nursing Education (vCNE) Acute Series is specially designed to update nurses working in hospital settings on hot topics, evidence based practice and Avera's current strategic initiatives. Primarily Avera content expert speakers will be presenting on topics including rhythm interpretation, USP 800 guidelines, informed consent, service excellence, drug diversion, and palliative medicine in the acute care setting.

This is the recording of the live session. Although rhythm interpretation is reviewed in undergraduate nursing education, continued practice is required for competency. Furthermore, this session will address nursing interventions to initiate based upon the assessment of the rhythm and patient.

Objectives:

1. Interpret basic cardiac rhythms.
2. Initiate appropriate interventions related to interpreted cardiac rhythms.

Target Audience: Other
