

Avera vCNE Ambulatory Care Series: Gout

Presented by: Kara Peterson, MD

An e-learning course available on the Avera Portal**

PROGRAM GOAL: This activity will enhance the learners knowledge of wounds and skin care and the modalities to treat various wounds and describe wound prevention methods.

TARGET AUDIENCE: Physicians, Nurses and Nursing Home Administrators

OBJECTIVES:

1. Recognize risk factors for gout.
2. Review common management of gout.
3. Review patient education to improve adherence to gout treatment.

NCPD Outcome:

80% of nurses can self-report a knowledge gain related to gout, medication adherence or self-management.

To successfully complete this activity and receive 1.00 CNE and/or AMA, you must:

- a. View the attached video
- b. Complete the attestation
- c. Complete the evaluation

NCPD:

Avera is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. A total of 1.00 contact hours can be received upon completion of this activity.

Medical Assistant:

The American Association of Medical Assistants (AAMA) has approved this educational activity for 1.0 hours. Attendance for this activity will be submitted directly to the AAMA.

Feedback Person for this education activity are listed below. If you have questions please contact them.
Name & Email: averacontinuingeducation@avera.org

Policy on Disclosure: Continuing Education credits have been approved for this event. Due to the regulations required for CE credits, anyone in a position to control or influence the content this educational activity are required to fully disclose all conflicts of interest that are pertinent to the content of this educational activity to participants. In observance to this requirement we are providing the following disclosure information: There is nothing to disclose

Enduring material available from 12/16/2020 to 09/30/2021
This course content was reviewed on 12/16/2020.

