

2021 Avera vLEAD Leadership Series: The Resilient Leader (Enduring Material)

 An e-learning course available on the Avera portal **

Program Goal

This session is a recording of an interactive session with Steve Tappe, discussing the topic of resiliency amidst the events and trauma of this past year and the pandemic. Steve led participants on a journey of self-awareness and shared questions with the group that leaders were able to reflect, share and potentially utilize as tools for their teams in a similar manner.

Objectives

- 1 Discuss how successful teams and high quality leadership lead to an improved health care delivery system.
- 2 Describe ways to maintain resiliency in the face of challenge.
- 3 Define the value of vulnerability for leaders.

Outcome

80% of learners will self-report an increase in knowledge of the tools utilized in order to effectively lead their teams by the end of the activity.
