

2023 FRIDAY FORUMS

SEPTEMBER – DECEMBER SCHEDULE

On the first Friday of every month, we will launch the content.

You then have 30 days to watch the webinar, review supplemental information, complete a brief post-test and evaluation, and receive education at your fingertips with accessible CEUs.

QUESTIONS

For questions on this process or getting the registration link, please email fridayforums@avera.org.

Avera values providing education to the community and therefore, we want to continue Friday Forums, but in a different way this year based on your feedback.

WHAT IS THE NEW FORMAT, AND WHY THE CHANGE?

To increase flexibility of you getting the information at times that's convenient for you, we will offer asynchronous education.

On the first Friday of every month, we will launch the content. You then have 30 days to watch the webinar, review supplemental information, complete a brief post-test and evaluation, and receive education at your fingertips with accessible CEUs.

WHO WILL THE TARGET AUDIENCE BE?

- Teachers
- Counselors
- Social Workers
- Other disciplines working with children and adolescent youth

HOW CAN I GIVE FEEDBACK?

At the end of each session, you can complete evaluations about the new format.

WHEN WILL THIS START?

Our first launch of information will be in October 2023.

DO I NEED TO REGISTER?

Yes. We send out a registration link in September. Please share this link with your peers. Via email, you'll receive the new CEU information the first Friday of every month.

WHAT IS THE CONTENT THIS YEAR?

- Helping Parents Know How to Respond to Wanted Behaviors
- When Worry becomes Avoidance: How Do We Help Parents to Change the Pattern of Avoidance
- Social Comparisons: Helping Parents Understand Impact of Social Media and Social Comparisons
- Physical Health and Mental Health: A Message for Parents to Understand the Relationship