

Mount Marty College and Avera presents:

The Journey Towards Cultural Competence in Healthcare Delivery

Speaker: Josepha Campinha-Bacote, PhD, MAR, PMHCNS-BC, CTN-A, FAAN
President of Transcultural Care C.A.R.E. Associates

Date: Thursday, October 19, 2017 from 9:00am-4:00pm
Doors open & Registration begins at 8:30am

Location: Mount Marty College Yankton Campus Cimpl Arena
1105 W. 8th Street
Yankton, SD 57078

Target Audience: Nursing Student, Nurse Educators, Nurses, Nurse Practitioners, Nursing Assistants, Counselors/Social Workers, and Healthcare Professionals who care for diverse populations.

Objectives:

1. Discuss the need for cultural competency in healthcare delivery
2. Articulate a practice model of cultural competency for healthcare professionals
3. Discuss the five constructs of cultural competence in healthcare delivery

Planners and Faculty have disclosed no conflict of interest.

Click here to register

About the speaker:

Dr. Josepha Campinha-Bacote, is the President and Founder of Transcultural C.A.R.E. which provided consultation service focusing on clinical, administrative, research, and educational issues in transcultural health care and mental health. Dr. Campinha-Bacote holds several state, national, and international certifications. She has been the recipient of several national and international honors and awards. Dr. Campinha-Bacote has given more than 1000 presentations and has numerous publications.

Avera Health is an approved provider of continuing nursing education by the Alabama State Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. Application has been made for continuing nursing education.

Application will be made for social work credit through the South Dakota Board of Social Work Examiners.

For questions, email averacontinuingeducation@avera.org.

